

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

Pale and interesting

1 Based in the Scottish Borders, interiors store Jelly and Ice Cream sells practical five-pint batter bowls available in pastel shades. They cost £22 each plus p&p (01450 379777; www.jellyandicecream.net) ☒. 2 Designers Guild's charming new nursery fabrics start at £25/m (020 7893 7400; www.designersguild.com) ☒. 3 Little Foxes Sanctuary rehabilitates orphaned animals for release back into the wild. A pack of six cards containing three designs costs £5.50 with all profits going to the volunteer-run charity (01844 279469) ☒. 4 Store a dozen eggs in this mesh-fronted cupboard from Country Cream (or choose the larger 24-egg cupboard). It can be finished in your chosen shade. From £39 (020 8660 3527; www.countrycream.co.uk) ☒. 5 Ernest & Matilda's floral cushions are handmade from vintage fabrics. Prices start at £18.50 (07814 867269; www.ernestandmatilda.co.uk) ☒. 6 Bookbinder Rachel Hazell's matchbox-sized notebooks (from £10) are handsewn using French stitching (0131 554 6283; www.hazelldesignsbooks.co.uk) ☒. 7 Use these ticking ribbons to trim furnishings or to tie napkins. They cost £3/3m spool (01273 476464; www.carolinezoob.com) ☒. 8 These French soap flakes (£15.99) come in a pretty storage tin (01721 724479; www.sachsmith.com) ☒. ▷